

Where are they now?

The Bond Interviews Frater Col. Tim Walters

Recently, The Bond had a chance to interview Frater Col. Tim Walters, scroll number 502. Below is part of that interview, to see the rest, log on to www.betapsitke.com.

What do you do for a living? Retired from the Army after 22 years - teach Army JROTC at Valley View H.S.

Tell us about your family. Wife Linda - married 32 years - met in California - two children Katie and Matt. Katie will be a Junior at ASU - Matt just graduated from Valley View - will be a freshmen at the Univ. of Ar. on a tennis scholarship.

What have you done in your life since being an undergraduate at Arkansas State University?

Traveled around the world on active duty with the Army - assignments in Korea, California, Georgia, grad school at Florida State, Germany, ASU ROTC assignment, Kansas, Washington state, Professor of Military Science at ASU, retired from Active duty in 1993. Began teaching JROTC at Valley View in 1993 - travel around the country with Matt playing tennis for the past eight years.

Why did you join Tau Kappa Epsilon? Friends from Jonesboro high school were TEKES - enjoyed the friendship and brotherhood.

Tell us your about your favorite Teke Moment. What made it so special? Rush chairman my senior year in 1971 - late nights at delta hall - playing cards - smokers - ping pong - drinking beer at Tommy Watkins apartments all over Jonesboro - spring breaks in Florida - homecoming displays - intramural sports - three fires - Red Car. - The word - hell week. It just didn't get any better for a college senior!

What are your plans for the future? Work a few more years - stay active - travel to the Univ. of AR. to watch Matt play tennis.

Where is the farthest that you have ever been from Jonesboro, AR, and why were you there?

Korea, 13 months with the Army - a few weeks in Hong Kong and Taiwan

Is there anything else you would like to add? I've had three periods in my life associated with the TEKES at ASU. 1968-1971 active member. 1981-1984 chapter advisor 1990-1993 chapter advisor

My association with TKE over the past five decades is responsible for who I am today. Any success that I have enjoyed in life is because I was fortunate to be part of something special in 1968 - The TKE fraternity at Arkansas State University!